Dear Mr. Otto,

This letter is in response to your August 24, 2016 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request addressed to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM). You requested a copy of the IT inventory catalog that was created in the wake of the OPM breach.

The responsive records are being withheld from disclosure under exemption 7E of the FOIA. Exemption 7E of the FOIA protects law enforcement information that "would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law." 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(E).

The undersigned is responsible for this determination. You have the right to appeal this decision. Should you wish to do so, you must send your appeal and a copy of this letter, within 90 days of the date of this letter, to:

U.S. Office of Personnel Management
Office of the General Counsel
1900 E Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20415

Both the front of the envelope and the first page of your letter should be marked "FOIA Appeal." Copies of the FOIA regulations are available at www.opm.gov/efoia.

The Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways:
